Dear Family:

I wanted to convey my sincere regret for your recent loss. In the difficult days ahead I hope you will find comfort in the happy memories you must cherish. The Holy Bible also gives us hope and comfort. At Revelation 21:4 it says that soon 'death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry nor pain be any more'. We have the promise of seeing our loved ones again in a world with no more suffering. Until that time it is good to know our loving creator always welcomes our prayers(Philippines 4:6,7). You are in my thoughts and prayers.

we will miss you but no more suffering will never forgot those times of sitting on the porch in Tennessee and looking at the humming birds trying to find their feet for heather :) and looking for bears that were eating the bark of your trees or berry picking and we still say "mildewing" when someone asks how are you :) until we see each other again love ya :) Juanita
