

Donald R. Winglemire

November 20, 1925 - January 11, 2017

Donald Winglemire, age 91, of Holly, died Wed. Jan. 11, 2017. Funeral services will be held at 1:00 PM Tues. Jan. 17, 2016 at the Dryer Funeral Home, Holly. Burial will be in Lakeside Cemetery, Holly. Visitation will be from 2-9 PM Sun. and Mon. He was born November 20, 1925 to Maurice Winglemire and Edna Burkhardt Winglemire in the village of Holly in a house (now known as Joseph's Oak Shop) across the street from the present Winglemire Furniture, in the back room by the pot belly stove. His family eventually moved to 208 College Street. Don's grade school years were spent at the school on the corner of Baird and Washington Streets. He attended high school at the Union School located on College Street. During Don's high school years, he worked for P.A. Wright & Sons Hardware. Don's father Maurice died in 1943 just before Don graduated from high school. Don was drafted into the U.S. Navy during World War II, serving on a light cruiser, the USS Atlanta. He saw action in the Pacific and in the Battle of Okinawa. His rank was PhoMC2, a photographer mate, and he took photographs of the Nagasaki devastation and many other significant events during his Navy career. When he returned home from the Navy, Don and his mother Edna co-operated Winglemire Furniture. In 1948, Don married Hazel Williams of Holly in Angola, Indiana. They built a new home on Bevins Lake property in 1952, where Hazel passed in 2007 and Don resided until his death. Don always loved Holly and called it his home. He implemented the revitalization of downtown Holly in 1986 and worked many long hours to make Holly a better place for its businesses and residents. Don was a member of the Holly Village Council for 26 years, served on the Downtown Development Authority, served on the Holly Township Board of Trustees, and was the Township Zoning Board Chairman for 20 years; he also served on the Holly Park Authority, the Holly Veterans Memorial Association, Holly Kiwanis Club, Holly American Legion, Holly Royal order of the Moose, Holly Veterans of Foreign Wars, Holly Masons Lodge, Holly Chamber of Commerce, Holly Historical Commission, Holly Community Fund, Military Order of the Cootie, and Boys Scouts, where he achieved Eagle Scout status. Don was certified as an Interior Designer, belonged to the Michigan Retailer's Association, was a Holly Retail Merchant for seventy years, and was president of Winglemire Furnitre, Joseph's Oak Shop, and Holly Gas Company. During Don's younger years, he continued to dabble in photography and processed his photos in a dark room in his basement. Don enjoyed scuba diving and belonged to the Michigan Skin Diving Council and the Holly Skin Diver's Club. He also loved hunting and fishing, especially at his cabin in Sidnaw. Don and some of his buddies formed a bowling team that Winglemire Furniture sponsored, and they were champions for many years. Don loved gardening and even had a greenhouse built next his home. He cultivated beautiful geraniums and rows and rows of roses. Don had a plethora of collections, from antique toys to historical data on Holly. Don is survived by his children Lynn (Rick) Duberville, John (Audrey) Winglemire, Penny (Lorne) Raupp, and Richard (Jill) Winglemire; his grandchildren, Ryan (Crystal) Near, Dwayne (Katie) Raupp, Maurice (Emily) Raupp, Joseph Winglemire, Anna Winglemire, Alyssa (Jarem) Savage, and Jacob Winglemire; and his great-grandchildren Maddox and Hudson Near, Mira Belle Raupp, and McKenzie Savage. He was preceded in death by his sister Barbara Keener. Don's children currently live in Holly and work in the family businesses. Special thanks go to Grace Hospice and Lindsay Brabon. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Holly Kiwanis Club, Holly VFW, or the Holly Education Foundation. www.dryerfuneralhomeholly.com

“ I received the news too late to take any action, however, Don was someone that my late husband, Bob Lewis, respected as a man, a business man and a council man.

My prayers and thoughts will remain with the family.

“Just a question. How did the great-grandson happen to have the first name of Hudson? That was my father's name. We do not know how he and his dad before him were named Hudson. Perhaps because they came from New York state. The name Hudson is now used by the fifth generation. Just wondered.

“ It is with great respect that we offer our sincere condolences to the Winglemire family. Our community has lost a great leader and friend. Thanks for being our advocate for the Cub and Boy Scout Troop 43 Holly MI. Anything we needed--Mr. Winglemire made sure that the need was met. This was his Troop when he was a youth as well. Mr. W served his community with great pride. It was an honor to see him in action when he served as a Council Member for so many years. I considered him as my personal mentor when I was appointed to the Planning Commission where I served for 12 years. He was very accessible and willing to assist whenever I needed a history lesson. He will not be forgotten by our family. Sincerely Doug and Marie Henderson & Family Shane, Seth, Spencer, Sawyer and Michele.

“ Lynn, John , Penny and Dick.

Our deepest sympathy to you during this difficult time of letting go of an Icon of Holly! Be proud of your heritage and what your Dad accomplished during his long and fruitful life. Holly has a big hole in its heart this week but is better because of your Dad! Keeping you all in our prayers. We apologize for not being able to express our sympathy in person as we are out of state until April but we are with you in prayer .

“ A legend really. A part of these amazing people that I came to know and love as family. The Winglemires, the Wolverton's, the Dryers, the McKenneys, the Wheelers, Keeners and so many more. You all showed me what a community, a village is all about. Family, traditions, simple living. I see your grandchildren in your face. You leave alot of memories and a big impact on our little village. Tell all my legends before you I say thanks for the memories. Rest in peace Donald.

“ We are saddened by the passing of Mr. Donald Winglemire. He was a true gentleman and a good friend for many years to my parents, Forest and June Wiles. My mother sends her love and prayers, and I will personally miss his pleasant personality that he always passed along. Since having grown up in Holly and seeing him around town often, you always knew he was a very good person. Prayers for the entire Winglemire family, and may God bless you all and heal your sorrow. Unfortunately, another wonderful part of Holly history has been lost.
