

Holly A. Scott

March 26, 1971 - April 21, 2014

Holly Ann Scott-Simmonds. After a long illness and a short brave battle with cancer, Holly passed away on April 21, 2014 at the young age of 43. She was the wonderful wife of 14 years to Dan Simmonds and the caring mother to her three daughters, Hannah, Hailey, Hope and stepson Aaron. Beautiful daughter of R. K. and the late Ann (Eby) Scott. Loving sister to the late Dawn Cummings and sisters Wendy Watson and Jennifer Stall. Doting grandmother to Carter. Holly also leaves behind many other family and friends who all loved her dearly. The impact Holly made on all those who knew her is much too large to express in a short tribute. She was a loving, devoted wife and a nurturing mother who had a strong family value and commitment. Holly was also a warm, caring friend to have. Holly was a gifted artist and earned a degree in graphic design. She was an exceptional soccer player and enjoyed antiques, being outdoors, hunting and fishing. Holly's smile, laugh, and passion for life will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

Visitation will be held at Dryer Funeral Home 101 First Street, Holly on Thursday from 2-5 and from 7-9 pm. Funeral service will be at 2pm Friday.

Donations can be made to the family at youcaring.com (Help Holly) or C.O. Dryer Funeral Home. <http://www.dryerfuneralhomeholly.com>

“ Dear Family:

I wanted to convey my sincere regret for your recent loss. In the difficult days ahead I hope you will find comfort in the happy memories you must cherish. The Holy Bible also gives us hope and comfort. At Revelation 21:4 it says that soon 'death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry nor pain be any more'. We have the promise of seeing our loved ones again in a world with no more suffering. Until that time it is good to know our loving creator always welcomes our prayers. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I wish to send my regrets for your loss. In the difficult days ahead I hope you will be able to draw comfort from the fact that not only does our creator understands the pain we suffer, but also that he will soon end all pain and anxiety. At Revelation 21:4 God promises to “wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be any more. The former things have passed away.” Until that time, I pray your memories of the past and your confidence in the future will give you the strength and joy to endure.

“ Holly

I remember you when we lived in Grand Blanc and you and Jenny played with my daughter, Jackie. Good memories of you spending time with Jackie on White Cliff Road. May God help your family through their time without you.

“ My dear Holly...I believe that I met you for a purpose back on January 3rd @ Crittinton Hospital! You were an angel back then as my roommate when I got assigned to your room!!!! I fell in love with the kindness you showed me in those few 4 days I got to know you. I am truly blessed to have had those short few days but only wishing I had met you sooner. You are free and may you truly reap the benefits of heaven. Heaven gained a beautiful angel inside and out. Till we met again. All my love, Amy Cohen

“ My dear Holly....I first met you when you were still in diapers. With that beautiful white hair you lit up a room as you lit up my heart....you need a Father figure and God blessed me with that privilege. We're ever Dawn and I went to tagged along, you would hold my finger with your little hand....and you made me realize what a blessing it would be to be a Dad.....we lost touch for years and for that I'm sorry, if I let you down by not being there it was my loss.....you grew up to be a beautiful young lady and an amazing Mother.....and then to step in and help Carter as you did, you set a good foundation for him....so don't worry about him I know that everyone will look out after him, as well as your daughters.....now our Lord has taken you home, he saw that you need rest.....so rest my dear and don't worry about your family.....God will give Danny the strength he needs, and we will all look in on him for you.....so rest my dear until we see each other again.....and thank you for sharing your life with me.....I love you Tim

“ Cancer has a way of robbing away the lives of people we love. It is hard to understand why. No words can express how deeply sorry we are for your loss. My niece recently passed away from cancer at the young age of 32. May their passings remind everyone to get regular checkups to find cancer early enough to fight this cruel disease. May you find a little comfort in knowing that she is finally pain free. Heaven has gained a beautiful new angel. RIP Holly.
