“ Dear Doris, Mark, Scott, Renee and Astrid-We are traveling presently but also thinking of you in your time of sorrow. Chris was in touch with us and told us about Manfred. This has saddened us deeply and as Chris mentioned saddened our Dad so much. I will always remember Manfred with a big smile on his face! he loved coming over to the house for the lively political commentary, good laughs and good food! Mom and Dad loved having him visit and Manfred was such a big help to our parents as they got older and needed more assistance in keeping up such a big house. we all appreciated his kindness to Mom and Dad tremendously. Good memories of Manfred will always be with us. In deepest sympathy, Barbara Weber Yoffee and Norman Yoffee

“ Dear Mark, Scott, Renee, and Astrid. We are so sorry to hear of Manfred's passing. I have many fond memories of Manfred's many visits to my parents house, especially when your dad was also present with Manfred. It wasn't long before the beers and schnapps started flowing and the political discussions started raging. It brings a smile to my face for sure. And boy, did they get loud!!!!

As my parents aged, Manfred was always there to lend a hand and I for one was very thankful for his help. I have attached some photos that I had processed last week that was a left over from my parents things. They are pictures from about 10 years ago when Manfred was helping my dad paint. As you can imagine, my dad was very upset upon hearing the news. He saw both Manfred and your dad as brothers.

He will be surely missed, but I pray that he is at peace with Christ our Lord. Know that we will keep you all in prayer.
