

Marcia Jean Mack

January 22, 1941 - August 4, 2020

Marcia Jean Mack (Agdanowski) (79) went home to be with Jesus on Tuesday, August 4. She was reunited with her son, Bryan, parents, Anna and Raymond Agdanowski, and many other loved ones who had gone before her. While our hearts have great sorrow, our God is greater and we are joyful for these reunions. We are confident in the hope of Christ Jesus and stand knowing that she is in heaven with the rewards of a race run well serving her Lord. Husband, Richard Mack, daughter, Beth Mack Gentner, and son-in-law, Rick Gentner, celebrate and cherish the love that she shared with them and so many others. As a Registered Nurse, she lived out the call that God placed on her life to serve others with compassion and kindness. Graduated from Borgess School of Nursing, she was an inspiration to those for whom she cared and worked with. She dedicated her life to the care of others and spent years teaching others the ways of a servant heart. She has left a legacy of love in friendships, nieces, nephews, and extended family. Her wisdom and humility are gifts that she shared with all she encountered. Her empathy for others filled her heart with prayers and concerns for all and she promised to continue to pray for those she has gone before from her heavenly place. Our family would be blessed by memorial tributes made to the trade school at Eagle Village.

“ Dear Rich-My mom is blessed to have neighbors like you and Marcia. Marcia will be missed so much! Kay enjoyed all their weekly outings in the Grand Blanc area and many, many games of “Words With Friends” . I know Kay was thankful when Marcia helped to finish off all those masks for essential workers. Marcia gave so generously to everyone around her. Remember all those returnables for Hannah’s Europe trip!? I hope you are comforted by good memories. Let me know if there is anything we can do.
Twinning!
Hearts and hugs,

“ Dear Beth and Family,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your Beloved Mother Marcia. I didn't know her, but after reading her obituary, Beth, I know where you received your kindness and compassion from. Her good deeds will live on in you. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
Take care, Janet
