“ Mark was my first and one of my very best childhood friends. We had a huge number of adventures together and I was proud to know him. I am speechless he has died so young. Though I have not talked to him in many years, I have thought of him many times and always hoped he was well. In the future, I will endeavor to think of his family and send them well wishes. I am sure he would want that more than anything.

“ Mark was one of my first friends. I remember competing to see how high we could swing, climbing trees, exploring the swamp behind our houses, playing in Ty's treehouse. And the cars. The backdrop for everything Fair. The garage. We grew into different lives, but any time I saw him, Mark greeted me with that glowing smile as he shared family stories with pride. What a remarkable person. The world lost a bit of its glow when he left us.

“ My deepest sympathy to the Fair family. You may not remember me but I wasn't around as much as I wanted to be. But, thank you to my dear friend at the time, Cheryl Schalm, I became a friend and race car devotee to Joy and Mark Fair. Cheryl and I would go up to Joy's Garage in Pontiac I think maybe 2 times during weekdays and see them at the races like the Mt. Clemens Race Track. This was back, I think, in the late 70's and early 80's. I used to call Mark "Sparky Marky" and we said Mork and Mindy was our favorite show. I'm older than Mark, but enjoyed our conversations. I'm grateful for the snowmobile ride in back of his dad's home. Cheryl and I went there to say hi and hang out as just friends. It'll be one of memories I will cherish about him. He was funny, kind, sensitive and could also be quite the prankster. I thought I would look up an old friend but, unfortunately I just discovered his passing in April. I'm shocked, devastated and in grieving mode now. God bless his sweet soul. I know he's in heaven looking over his family, wife, children, etc as well as his cherished friends and all those who knew him. God bless his dad, too, he was a funny, kind man as well. Mark will live on forever in our hearts. Stay close. Hug each other. Share your stories, memories of such a reMARKable person. I, as well, will miss him terribly. So very sorry of your loss. I was known as "Shrimp" by Mark and Joy. My name was Sandy Russo. Love to all.
