Life Lessons In Words

And Then Some

These three little words are the secret to success. They are the difference between average people and top people in most companies.

The top people always do what is expected...and then some...

They are thoughtful of others; they are considerate and kind...and then some...

They meet their obligations and responsibilities fairly and squarely...and then some...they are good friends and helpful neighbors...and then some...

They can be counted on in an emergency...and then some...

I am thankful for people like this, for they make the world more livable, Their spirit of service is summed up in these three little words...and then some...

“ Dear Family:

I wanted to convey my sincere regret for your recent loss. In the difficult days ahead I hope you will find comfort in the happy memories you must cherish. The Holy Bible also gives us hope and comfort. At Revelation 21:4 it says that soon 'death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry nor pain be any more'. We have the promise of seeing our loved ones again in a world with no more suffering. Until that time it is good to know our loving creator always welcomes our prayers(Philippines 4:6,7). You are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Our deepest sympathy to Diane and the family. Bill will be missed by all of us on the lake! He loved walking Max on the peninsula and it gave us a chance to share with him. May The Lord keep him in the hallow of His Hand! Bruce & Betty Campbell

“ I wish I had more opportunities to get to know Billy when I became an adult. Every winter, I planned to visit but year after year went by without it happening. I remember him as my older cousin who was fun to play with. He was always patient when my family spent the holidays with Auntie Bevs and Uncle Ernie and I would jump on him in the mornings while he was still asleep on the couch (having given his bedroom up to my sister and I). I remember the summer I went to visit him and Diane for a week when Tracy was about 4 or 5. We had great fun. We washed Billy's car and he taught me that I was supposed to rinse it off before using the sponge or I would scratch the finish. It's obvious that he was a strong family man and raised Tracy and Mark to be very responsible, caring, and self-sufficient. Billy will surely be missed.

“ Our sincere condolences to Diane, Tracey (and children) and Mark. We knew Bill as a kind and caring neighbor. He kept his house and yard beautiful. He not only served and cared for his country, but his neighborhood and neighbors as well. Bill was very knowledgeable and a good person to consult. We will miss him very much. Thank you Bill for all you've done!
