“ I will focus on my memories of growing up. My Aunt Ann and I were close in age, her being the youngest child of my grandparents, and I being the first grandchild. We would spend time on the lake, playing in the water in our inner tubes, and listening to music on the dock. She would take me to the county fair, and let me eat all the wonderful food I could stuff in my tummy before going back to grandma and grandpa. We would spend the night watching playing cards with grandma or watching TV with grandpa. After going to bed, Ann would wake me up to show me SNL :) She was my aunt, and she was my friend.

“ My sister, Ann, was a special person and very special to us. Those who chose not to partake in her life missed a great deal. She was forever determined and hopeful. Ann saw the humor in the worst of situations. A light has now been extinguished in our lives. Ann is in a better place now, without pain, and likely welcomed at the gate by Mom and Dad. Rest in peace lovely sister. We will miss you very much.
