“ My sincere condolences to your family during this time of sorrow, may loving family and friends help you in the days ahead to cope with the loss of Anna. At times like these, we can draw comfort from God's promises in the Bible. At Revelation 21:3, 4 God has promised to wipe out all our tears and eliminate our pain and death. And at John 5:28, 29 God promises a resurrection back to life in the near future. Jesus said, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."

“ Stefanie and Allen..... I was sorry to hear of your mom's passing. I hope good memories bring you comfort. Your mom was such a big part of my growing up, as we're all of you. I will forever remember your mom for her creativity- the art, the posters she would make, the colored snow structures, and for the way she always pushed us to be creative too (nobody had lemonade stands like we did, did they? :)). My thoughts are with you both, and with Paula and the boys. Melanie

MC

Stefanie and Allen, I am so sorry for the loss of your Mom. I never met her, or you Allen, but I have known your sister for many years and I can only guess that you are made of the same caring and hard working fabric that she is, And she's funny too! Know that my prayers are with you both, and your extended family.
