

Arden R. Scofield

May 23, 1933 - January 1, 2026

Arden R. Scofield died January 1, 2026, at the age of 92. Arden was born May of 1933 in West Virginia to Willis and Ida Scofield.

Arden grew up in Midland, Michigan, where he excelled in field and track. He then spent a tour in the Army in Japan, where Ruthie (Cooney) flew over to meet him. They were married there in 1955. After returning to the States, he graduated from Ferris State with a degree in accounting and spent his entire accounting career working for General Motors.

Arden enjoyed many sports, especially golf. He was also an avid reader. An exceptionally kind and fair man, his children feel fortunate to have had him as their dad.

He is preceded in death by his parents, his wife Ruth, and his first grandchild, Brandon.

He is survived by his daughter, Carla (Chris), son, Brent (Missie), grandchildren Alexandra, Angelina (Eric), Geoffrey (Taylor), Stephen, Delaney, Clarissa (Aric) and great-grandchildren Ronan and Elliot.

Deepest thanks to the staff of Hampton Manor of Holly for their devotion and care. They made a positive difference in Arden's last months.

A visitation will be held on Wed. January 7, 2026 from 2-7PM at the Dryer Funeral Home. A graveside burial will take place on Saturday, May 23, 2027 at 11AM at Colwell Cemetery, White Lake Road Tyrone Township, Michigan 48430. www.dryerfuneralhomeholly.com
