“ I have known Barb since 1969, when I would take daughter, Sheila, for a ride in her stroller. We always stopped at McKays. One day there was a sales rep. who came in asking to speak to Ray. This was shortly after Rays death. The clerk, Margaret, told the man Ray, was not in and he would have to talk to Barb. Barb came up front and the rep informed Barb he would only talk to Ray. Barb told rep to wait just one minute, Barb then went to the back and came back with a shovel, handed it to rep, Who was dumb enough to ask what am I to do with this? Barb informed rep" Where Ray was at and about 6' down have a good chat" Rep then exited store still holding shovel, where clerk found it leaning on the window. That was our Barb.

“ This makes me sad to hear and my thoughts certainly go out to the entire family. But it also brings a smile to my face. Barb was such an amazing person for everybody that knew her. The Village of Holly is much better because of her. She was always extremely supportive of the Jaycees when I was a member. Such a sweet lady.

“ I will never forget spending the night under the Christmas tree on New Years Eve at the farm. Aunt Barb invited Mike and I, Sue and Paul and John Frances and Margaret. None of us were married at the time but Aunt Barb was sure there was something magical about that tree because all three couples were eventually married! Your mom will be greatly missed. She was an amazing woman and I grew to love her very easily.

Love to you all, Joanne McPhail
