“ I remember sitting in the back room at Dryer's with Bernadette waiting for Frank's service to start. She said "when your mother dies, it is painful and sad, but when your Dad dies you realize you are no longer someones little girl." I like to think she is once again Frank's little girl.

“ *To Rod and Mark,
I have many fond memories of Bernie. I would be invited for dinner then after we cleaned the kitchen, we would put on Motown and Johnny Mathis and I would watch how cool Mark and Bernie could dance together. They taught me how to dance. Bernie was a fun person. She will be missed. RIP.*
