“ I had the pleasure of meeting Miss Berneice a little over a year ago when my Aunt Eva became a resident of Bristol Manor. Miss Berneice gave me such joy. A hug on arrival and a hug on departure along with a "be good, I love you". We sat at the table one day and she told me how she had to help take care of all the little girls there at the Manor and that she was going to teach them how to dance on tables for money just like she had to do. When I started to giggle she told me she could teach me too if I would like. You have to admit, dementia CAN brighten a day. My love and prayers go out to you family members. As a Christian I know God doesnt make mistakes. As a human I am selfish and will miss her so much.
