“ I will never forget her laugh or her smile. She was my Aunt and I have many fond childhood memories of time spent at her home. Aunt Berta never got mad. Not even when Cindy, Dee, and I got lost in the woods at their house. Aunt Berta's dog Dusty finally lead us to a road Cindy recognized. Aunt Berta served us the best dinner I have ever had. A fresh ham from the farm. I loved their life. Aunt Berta and Uncle Jim gave me many fond memories. I miss Berta very much.
