“ Leroy, I have fond memories of both you and Betsy from our days in Lapeer.

The most striking memories I have of both of you is that you both had joy in your hearts and it exuded to the people you knew and met.

My condolences to you, Leroy and to your family.

“ *Dear Millis Family,
I am so sorry to hear of your loss. Betsy was such a wonderful person. I especially loved it when she and Dode would come into the IGA together. Their humor was so intoxicating. I used to call them Frick & Frack. Now they are together again and I hope having so much fun. She touched the lives of many and will be miss so very much. My thoughts and prayers are with you all at this sorrowful time.*
