“ Grandma Bandy ... you will be missed. I recall all of the good times we had at your home in Lincoln Park. You loved Christmas and proudly displayed your purple Christmas tree. We loved receiving your annual Hallmark Christmas ornaments every Christmas, many still hang on our tree. We had a mutual love for the nature and animals. I remember the dove who trusted you, and nested in your hanging flowers every spring and you protecting her. You will truly be missed by many.

“ Mrs. Bandy... Thank you for being the best kind of neighbor one could ask for. I will truly miss you and our wonderful conversations. We always talked for hours and I loved hearing about your life and how proud of your family you are. Thank you for loving our dog as much as we do, she misses you already. We miss you as well

“ Do Not Stand At My Grave And Weep
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow;
I am the diamond glints on snow;
I am the sunlight on ripened grain;
I am the gentle Autumn's rain.

When you waken in the morning's hush;

*I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight;
I am the soft star that shines at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there, I did not die.*

Love,

Scott and Kimberly Bandy

“ A Poem for Grandma ...

*Thank you for the gift of love,
now you're sharing it up above.
You had many things to say.
All in a caring way.
You always saw good in everyone,
No matter what they've done.
You were always the one we could all lean on.
Even though it must have felt like a ton.
You were always the strength of the family.
Now we must let you rest calmly.
As we say goodbye,
as tears roll down our eyes.
I know your place in heaven has a good view.
Because you're telling God,
I need to keep an eye on a few.
I know you will always be in our hearts and mind.
So Grandma,
I must go, but I'll never forget you're one of a kind.*

I did not write this myself but I wish I had. So fitting for Grandma Bandy ... I will always carry her memory in my heart and I am so thankful that she was a part of my life.

Love you always Grandma!

MOM, I love you and already miss talking to you. You were like a second mom to me and a best friend to my mom. What brings me comfort now is knowing that both my moms are now together in heaven. You will always be in my heart.
