Dear Terry, Roger, Onalee, and Karen, I always admired so much your parents: they obviously enjoyed working together and being together throughout their marriage, and they raised 4 beautiful children. I remember visiting when Roger was first building the home you were all raised in, and later, Roger was still fixing it up after you had long left home, building raised flower beds for Bonnie! I never knew she was a track star! She was 10 years older than me, and I remember staying overnight with my Aunt Marguerite and Uncle Hank when I was a little girl (they had a house where the bank is now on Caroline Street) and getting into Bonnnie's nail polish! I tried to hide it, but the red nails were a dead give away! Love to all of you, Mary Lynn
PS: Sorry I can't attend the memorial, but we live in North Carolina.
