“ Bless you my brother, best friends to our family, especially to Scott! You were one of coolest dudes in school and one fantastic wrestler who taught me a few quick moves and took this ole boy down in our front room...funny and embarrassing! You were there to help my mom with flowers at my grandparents graves and we enjoyed some dogs and rootbeer at the Hotdog Stand! We love you! You were surrounded by strong compassionate women who have always loved you! Tom Alpin

“ My family has been friends with the Robinsons for 40 years. Great people and good friends. As a teen, Bruce was always helping out neighbors when he could. As an adult he was the same. Always a stand up man, happy to see you and happy go lucky. He will be greatly missed.

“ Bruce wasn't a close friend but we knew each other by name in school and had a few conversations via Facebook. What I did know about him was the circle of friends he had and how everybody liked him. He worked hard at his business and his quality showed in the pictures he posted. I also knew that if I were to see him somewhere, he probably would have treated me like a lifelong friend. I know that those of you who were close to him feel a tremendous loss of such a great man. My most sincere condolences to Bruce's family and friends. So very sorry.

“ I met Bruce at Mt Holly ski resort the year of Covid when he introduced himself as a friend of my stepsons. He would tell me stories of how they would get together have a couple drinks and end up scrapping by the end of the night. Blood and black eyes seem to be in every story.

He also talked of how they laughed about it the next day!

After hearing so many stories!

I finally asked him where he got to be such a scrapper ?

He said when he was younger, he was a wrestling champion.

That's when I questioned him about his size and wrestling. We both had a good laugh about that!

We also shared stories of our families, and it was then I knew his family was very important to him. I saw his face light up every time he talked about his mother!

He was proud of the landscape business that he had built. And proud to be a Mt Holly employee.

I will miss our talks.

Rest in Peace my friend!
