“ Cam & Billie were good friends, we spent a lot of time together before & after we were married. I helped Cam build his first home south of Holly. We used to laugh because he being left handed & me being right handed never lifted a piece of drywall or plywood up the same way. Janie & I stood up at Cam & Billies wedding & they stood up at ours. One time I needed a car, I don't recall why, but Cam said, here use mine, a beautiful blue Pontiac Bonneville convertible, let me use it for a week. He just said, here use mine. That's the kind of guy Cam was. Started to share another memory but Janie said, share that with Chuck & Wayne but you don't need to put on here....He & Billie will be missed by many....

“ It must have been 1965 or 6. Cam had this beautiful red GTO, white leather (I think) interior with a Hurst 4-on-the-floor. He let me try to drive it in Grandpa Boyer’s driveway. (We were all there working on a project for Grandpa.). I couldn’t handle a stick shift yet so I wasn’t successful, but a few months later I had my license and I was ready to try again...alas, that gorgeous GTO had morphed into a VW Beetle! I think it may have had something to do with imminent Chuck’s arrival. Anyway, for several years I just could let Cam forget how far he’d fallen. However, thanks to Cam’s generosity, I really learned how to drive a stick shift on that Beetle.

“ Chuck and Wayne. I have so many memories of Cam and Billie I could never even remember half of them. Many fond memories of golf closing the restaurant to have a dance party. Coming over for dinner and Billie almost cutting her thumb off.

I loved them both and they will be missed.

I loved Cam and Billie so much. They were great friends and we shared so many good times with them golfing, snow mobiling, up North at Donna & Leon's or Mac & Shirley's with all our little kids or at each others homes playing cards and cooking up parties and games. Cam was one of the sweetest people I have ever known. I know he must be in heaven with Billie & Jodi now. Love, Lynette Ranger MacKenzie

Chuck, Wayne and Amber my heart goes out to you in love and sympathy. Your family and ours were tied together for many years as you kids were growing up. No one was more special than Cam and his willingness to help anyone! You all have big shoes to fill and I see you already making him so proud. I'm sure Amos greeted him with a slap on the back and a deck of pinochle cards. He will be missed. Love, "Aunt" Dor
