“ I first met Cameron in 1972 when we built a home across the street from the Well's family on Belford Road. Great neighbors. Cameron was always there to look out for the family when I was not around.

We've had Christmas brunch for the last few years and I'm glad I was able to visit a couple of times in the past months. A super guy who had his head screwed on straight. The world needs more like him.

We shall all miss him but glad he is at peace.

“ I did not have the honor of getting to know my great-uncle Cami, but as long as he was a Wells, I know he must have been a splendid man. I am comforted knowing he is with his siblings -- my Grampie -- now and they can all finally rest peacefully together. I hope they can all watch me continue to grow and laugh together at the foolish mistakes I'll make along the way.
