“ Cari had a way of making you feel like she had known you forever, as well as a great sense of humor to boot! When I was timidly starting in a new position at her building, she was the first person to make me feel welcomed, and that feeling continued! You didn't have to know her long at all to know her warmest and kindness towards others. It was a joy knowing her (anyone who knew her could attest to that)! To this day am so very thankful to have had her friendly face to welcome me every time I went in the front office:-)! I am so sorry for your loss!! I hope the light of her joy stays with you all forever!
