“ I will never forget you baby sister. Every day without you is harder. I know you're in heaven looking down on us all. I'm so sorry for not being as good to you as you were to the world. I will always remember our first day of school together and our last day of playing with your kids together. I love you and will see you one day

“ I wish to send deepest regrets for your loss. In the difficult days ahead I hope you will be able to draw comfort from the fact that not only does our creator understands the pain we suffer, but also that he will soon end all pain and anxiety. At Revelation 21:4 God promises to “wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be any more. The former things have passed away.” Until that time, I pray your memories of the past and your confidence in the future will give you the strength and joy to endure.

“ My Dearest Niece Chantel. Our hearts are breaking and our tears flowing. It was too soon for you to leave us. When Lee was leaving to go to school in Illinois, you wrote a note on the dry-erase board. That was back in 2006 and it is still there. I saw it last night. "I love you!!! I will miss you!!!!" I will miss you always and forever. We'll take care of your babies. Jayden, Joseph and Jillian will be ok. We know you are looking down on them and rest assured, they will be well taken care of. Give your Grandpa Gene a huge hug and your great-grandparents as well. They welcomed you with open arms and hugs. Rest in peace my beautiful niece. All my love, Aunt Kathy

“ I miss you so much, I thank God for bringing you into our lives. we had some great conversations over morning coffee together! I think one of the most memorable adventures we shared was the night we took Talee to see Twilight, you were so mad during the fight scene when Carlos died, sitting at the edge of your seat, pounding your fist on the chair in front of you, and you kept saying " NO, NO, THAT IS NOT HOW THE BOOK HAS IT, NOOO" , and then the future flash ended and everyone was ok, you just stated laughing and sat back in your seat and said " told ya!" :-)

“ So many memories... How can I possibly pick one to share? Cuddling on the couch in the back of the scene shop before/during/after rehearsals at Holly High School... Talking on the phone for HOURS to get me through long nights at work... You holding my hand for 3 straight days of labor even though you had just had surgery on your foot and were in pain yourself, and then two hours after you went home to rest she was born! Oh you were so mad. :) I promised you that you could be there for the next one, and I know you will be. I miss you so very much. I love you with all of my heart and that is where I will keep you until we can see each other again. Save me a seat in heaven, doll. I promise to bug the crap out of John and keep him company til then. <3

“ It always seemed like a burst of sunshine when the Dunikowski girls would walk through my office door. Whatever issues I may have been having would melt away when I would see that huge smile on Chantel's face. Chantel had the kindest heart that she obviously got from her parents and big sister. God bless the Dunikowski family and everyone that was able to call Chantel their friend. You will always hold a special place in my heart little one. I love you.
