“ I wish to send my regrets for your loss. In the difficult days ahead I hope you will be able to draw comfort from the fact that not only does our creator understands the pain we suffer, but also that he will soon end all pain and anxiety. At Revelation 21:4 God promises to “wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be any more. The former things have passed away.” Until that time, I pray your memories of the past and your confidence in the future will give you the strength and joy to endure.

“ Chantel was a very sweet girl who I had the honor of knowing. She had a knack for smiling and lighting up the room and just making everything seem alright. I am glad that I had the opportunity to know her and work with her. She will be missed by all who knew her and my prayers go out to her family.

“ Chantel was an amazing person so full of life so loving she could light any room with just her smile. She helped me through some hardships I've dealt with. She always knew just what to say. I know how excited she was to have a baby and how happy she is right now holding him in heaven. She wouldn't want us to be sad she has her beautiful baby in her arms.

“ I met Chantel when she was six years old and in first grade. I remember her as a cute little girl who was an artist and who wrote good stories. She wrote a poem for me that I carry in my Bible. One summer she and Kayla and I went camping and she spent hours in the pool learning to stand on her head in the water. She tired and tried until she finally succeeded and as I remember, the water wasn't that warm. Chantel helped me with making cookies. She and Kayla shared two cats we had that were sisters. The girls always looked forward to visiting the cats at our house. She was a good girl and I will miss her. Grandma

“ From the moment I met Chantel, I knew we would have a special bond. She was someone that could always make me smile and would have great advice or just listen if I needed to talk. Sweet, loving, caring, beautiful, strong, funny, most non-judge mental person who was taken from us way to early. She was the little sister I never had, a friend and loved by so many. I will and do miss her more than words can say. R.i.p. beautiful angel. Love you always and I'll see you later. Erica
