

Charles D. Jergler

December 16, 1943 - July 4, 2025

Charles "Chuck" Jergler was born on December 16, 1943, and passed away on July 4, 2025. Husband of Nancy (Casillas), Father of Charles (Jennifer), Grandfather to Kendyl and Evan, brother to Nancy Chrusciel, Donna Jergler, and Donald Jergler, Stepfather to Blase (Monica) Casillas and Step-Grandfather to Alex. He was an uncle to numerous nieces and nephews and was loved by many in-laws, extended family, and friends. Chuck was preceded in death by his parents, Donald and Mary, and his late wife of 50 years, Janet. He will be remembered for his sense of humor, love of history, and remarkable ability to fix just about anything. Chuck served as a proud member of the United States Air Force and loved his country as well as his Scottish heritage. His hobbies included hunting, attending historical reenactments, and gunsmithing. Chuck enjoyed watching television, reading, visiting with others, and the view of boats traveling along the Saint Clair River. Always willing to help others in need, Chucks devotion to his family and kindness will be remembered by all who knew him.

An intimate family service is planned.
