“ So sad to hear the news of Cherryl passing.
my prayers to the family. she surely will be missed.I knew Cherryl from work. she made me laugh daily. she was caring and loving.
one thing you always knew right away about Cherryl is how much she loved her kids and grandkids. R.I.P. my friend.

Cherryl was a life long friend and we shared many experiences. Too many to try to list but one of the funniest is when she put peas in Clancy's open mouth while he slept sitting on her mom's beautiful chairs!
