

Connie Dawn White

February 27, 1966 - June 6, 2023

Connie Dawn White age 57 passed away June 6th peacefully with her family at her side after a long battle with colon cancer. She would pass comfortably in her own home of Montrose, Michigan. Connie was born February 27, 1966 in Morenci, Michigan and was the daughter of Darla Dawn Bair and Edward Eugene Senter. Connie spent most of her childhood in Holly, Michigan being the youngest of a large family whom she was very close with. She was a fiery red-headed tomboy who loved to play sports and be active. Tragically at the young age of 12 she would suffer a diving accident leaving her resigned to a wheelchair for life. Unwilling to let this stop her, Connie's overwhelming willpower and strength led her to have a very full life in spite of the many adversities she faced. She would follow her love of music to travel cross country with a band. Her love of children would lead her to work as a preschool teacher briefly before devoting the rest of her life to being the loving mother of four children who would be her pride and joy. She loved cooking, singing, Nascar, and above all else just being with family. Connie always kept a positive outlook and had a great sense of humor. She was a beacon of strength and an inspiration to many. Connie is preceded in death by her eldest son Don Glenn White and is survived by her 3 son's David White, Dean White, Daniel Manning, and her granddaughter Isabella White. Preceded in death by her parents Darla Dawn Bair and Edward Eugene Senter. She is survived by her siblings Lonnie Rush, Don Bair, John Bair, and Bonnie Bivens. Preceded by her Aunt Sharon Freeman and survived by her Aunt Jean Roth. She is survived by many nephews, nieces, and great nephews and nieces.
