I used to see Dale drive by my house everyday with his dog looking out the window of the truck. He would drive real slow so his dog would enjoy every minate of the drive back from town, made my day. RIP!

“ I had the pleasure of waiting on Dale at the credit union for many years. I loved him and I am truly sad today. He was an awesome gentleman. He loved his family and his doggie. He talked about missing his wife, Mary and I hope you all find comfort that they are together again. God Bless Dawn Corless
