“Darlene and I were childhood friends. We shared life and experiences. We stood up in each other's weddings, both lost our first born child, we opened businesses side- by- side. Through time and distance, we had an "And so... " relationship... always picking up where we left off. When she got the diagnosis, she text "Things are about to become rocky..." I loved her like a sister and she assured me we would reconnect in eternity. "We had joy, we had fun, we had seasons in the sun, but the wine and the song, like the seasons, are all gone".... until we meet again. Love you, my "heart" best friend💔
