“ Dave Cooper was a lover, he was a fighter, he was a midnight rider. Nobody ever knew what Dave was going to say or do but, one thing for certain nobody ever left him without a smile on their face or a deep belly laugh. We spent the weekend with Dave and Sandy when they lived in Ohio. That was a memory we will always remember. There was so much laughter, we were all wiping the tears away. Thank you God for the time we had with Dave as well as Sandy. What an awesome couple. It's too bad we never made it to Nashville Dave. Praise God, look where you are now!!!!!! Dave shared the love story between him and Sandy. What comes to mind is Vince Gill, When love finds you. To the special family of Mr David Cooper we send our deepest sympathy and prayer love, Bill and Becky Vaudt.

“ I was a neighbor and friend of Dave when he lived in Warren. He was a great guy, he was always helping people with their cars. He did a paint job on my 75 Blazer that won me 1st prize in the hot rod show in Detroit. R.I.P. Dave.

“ WE were his neighbors in Holly Hills for many years. I have a Anniversary Edition of the game SCRABBLE, it has gold nugget tiles. Dave hand painted over the Letters, so they were more legible to read. We still play it and remember his patience of during such a task. He will be missed but not forgotten. “ I just loved Mr. Cooper. He was always so kind to me and my family. He'd ask me almost every week was I singing that week - such a sweetheart. I am in total disbelief as I just saw Mr. Cooper last Sunday at The River. I gave him a hug and talked to him for a few minutes.....never thinking that was my last time on this Earth for such a wonderful opportunity. God Bless you Mr. Cooper....hug Sandy for us.....and we will see you again and what a day of rejoicing that will be! Save a moment to sing together ok? Love, Todd, Tammi, Brittani, Cody Bridger

“ Dave, was my step father many years ago when he was married to my mother Gloria. I was 10-13 years old then and Dave helped me become a man. He was always refinishing cars in the garage and paying me to help...He bought me the most beautiful drum set during those years... He and my mom remained friends even after the divorce and is the only man my mom said she really loved. He showed up in our lives again 1 year ago and has been such a good and helpful friend this last year to me. My heart just won't stop aching, for I know he loved me too. Our time was too short Dave... see you in the Millennium, love Timothy...

Cooper, I'm not done yet.

My heart will miss you, your hugs, your sense of humor, and your kind heart. Hug Sandy for me and I will see you when we meet on that beautiful shore.
