Hi David:

So sorry for your loss. It must be so overwhelming to lose the love of your life. You looked like such a beautiful couple and my heart aches for you and the children.

I remember you from Bow Elem in Detroit. I had always had a crush on you. I was checking out the membership from Bow and was blown away by all the comments on the students and teachers. I thought of you and just searched and there you were. Didn't expect the results I found (about Deborah).

Again, my sincere condolences to you and your family.

Take good care of yourself, be well and always live each day to the fullest.

Rhonda T. Barnett (nee Goldberg)

“ I've been on the Tuesday's Stroker Golf League with Debbie for more than 20 years. Debbie was a woman who was never afraid to speak her mind, competitive on the course and liked by all. She will be missed. RIP my friend. Linda Manning

“ Debbie & I go back a long way. We used to work together at the State of Michigan. She was a scarey person at first. But we became very good friends. I will miss her deeply. May God Bless Her. RIP Debbie, too young to go.
