

Deborah Lynn Goodman

February 1, 1964 - December 9, 2021

Deborah (Debbie) Lynn Goodman (Barnes, Dolittle), age 57, was peacefully freed from her pain here on Earth, in the comfort of her own home on December 9th, 2021. Debbie was born in Detroit, MI on February 1st, 1964, to Jerry and Gayle (Barnett) Dolittle. Debbie attended Belleville schools in Michigan. She raised four children with her former husband, Jerry Barnes, whom she reunites with in heaven. Debbie married Wayne Goodman on January 19, 2013, in Holly, MI, where they resided. Her greatest life accomplishment she was most known for and prided herself in greatly was taking care of her family, and she was a homemaker through and through. Debbie loved her people hard, unconditionally, without a doubt. Debbie was an incredible wife, a generous mother, and an exceptionally giving grandmother. She also deeply loved and adored her dogs, Stevie, and Mia. Debbie is survived and missed dearly by her husband, Wayne; her children, Chris Barnes, Laura (Amanda) Barnes, Sarah (Spencer) Cruz, and Autumn Barnes, and her stepchildren; Shantelle (Andrew) Goodman, Tiffany (Jared) Miller, and Alexander (Maria) Goodman; her nine grandchildren, Brooklyn, Levi, MaKenzie, Bretten, Aidan, Maddison, Tristan, Aleah, and Addie-Lynn; her siblings; Terry, Kim, Sherry, Gary, and Jimi. Her mother, Gayle Doolittle, and many cousins, nieces, and nephews. Lifelong friends and family by choice; Janice Mason and family; Tracy Linton and family; Angela Goodrich-Dearman and family; Doreen Streetman and family, and many more. She was preceded in death by her father, Jerry Doolittle, and her grandmothers and grandfathers and many more. A private celebration of life will be held December 26, 2021. A burial and celebration of life will be held in spring, where all are welcome. While flowers are welcome, the family greatly appreciates any donations to help alleviate the financial burden of giving Debbie the final resting place she so deeply deserves.
