“ Share a memory. I am flooded with memories of Dennis and they are all good memories. He was the kindest man I have ever met. Never said and unkind word about anyone. Always made you feel important when you were in his presence, and listened with interest to what ever you were talking about. I met Dennis when I married my husband Ron. They had been childhood friends. We were all newly married expecting our first babies and Linda and I quickly became good friends. From that day on I remember laughing a lot. We had such great times together. Dennis and Linda where my daughter Debbie's God parents. I could go on forever with memories of Dennis. RIP Dennis, you well always be remembered in my heart.
