

Donald C. Andreasson

October 10, 1936 - January 22, 2021

Donald C. Andreasson, age 84, of Holly died Fri. Jan. 22, 2021. He was born in Detroit on Oct. 10, 1936 to Rudolph and Clara (Jepson) Andreasson. He was the former owner of Detroit Reamer and Tool and was a member of the Cranbrook Alumni Association and the Society of Manufacturing Engineers. Donald was a thinker and a tinkerer, and he had held several patents for Tooling. He was also proud of his Swedish heritage. Surviving are 3 sons, Eric Andreasson, Randy Andreasson, and Kenton Andreasson; 5 grandchildren; and 3 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents and his brother Rudy Andreasson. Memorial donations may be made to Cranbrook. www.dryerfuneralhomeholly.com

Tribute Wall

LI

“ Donald was a very nice man cared about everyone. He loved working on things he made a tabernacle for the church in Holly he was proud of building that. He was very proud of his Heritage and his love for his family. He will be missed. He liked U Of M football. He was a good friend to everyone that knew him. And proud of going to Cranbrook. Hearing his stories were always nice you could tell he enjoyed telling them.

Linda - January 26, 2021 at 12:01 PM