“ Dorothy was one of the most wonderful women I have known. She was always on the shore as Al Sr. and Al Jr. paddled in canoe races all over Michigan. She was always so sweet and kind to everyone. She will be greatly missed!

“ Dorothy was The sweetest loving lady . Dorothy was a grandma to so many of my second grade students over last 6 years. The students enjoyed writing and drawing her cards. Dorothy would hand write a note to every child. She always included a $1.00 . The children still remember cherish those special notes. You are now loving children in heaven .

Our wonderful memories of dorothy include the never to be forgotten day she and family marched down that dusty road in quartzsite to give us homemade chocolate chip cookies and to introduce themselves. Since then dorothy and her family have been some of our best friends We miss her but at the same time are relieved the pain is over. Blessings to all in her family. We love you so much
