

Edith Louise Newman

June 5, 1926 - September 4, 2019

Edith Louise Newman (nee Cowling) died at 93 years old.

Born June 5, 1926. Died September 4, 2019 in Holly, Michigan at her home.

Edie led an amazing life. She was born in Pontiac, Michigan to British parents Harold and Daisy (Barrett) Cowling. At the beginning of World War 2 the family returned to England to support the war effort. As a teen living in London Edie survived the blitz and was later sent to live in the English countryside. There she met and married American serviceman Wallace Newman of Leggett, California. At the close of the war they returned to Michigan to begin a family.

They owned and operated Newman's Orchard in Clarkston. Edie was instrumental in creating educational opportunities for handicapped children in Oakland County.

Upon retirement they purchased a farm in Crossville, Tennessee.

Edie was an accomplished artist of multiple medias and loved and played more than a dozen musical instruments.

She was predeceased by husband Wally, daughter Lorraine, son Kelly, grandsons Aaron and Evan and siblings Jack, Dorothy, Eva, Eric and Gladys.

Edith is survived by children Pat Schierup (Dane), Walter Newman, Wanda Rose-Prentice, Eva Newman (Roger Welsh), Audrey Winglemire (John), James Newman (George Alger), brother Richard Cowling (Veronica) 11 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren.

Internment at a future date at the Great Lakes National Cemetery in Holly with husband Wally, and son Kelly.

“ Yesterday, our cousin Peter Cowling posted a video he'd put together to celebrate Aunt Edie's life. Watching it was like riding a rollercoaster....something lifting your spirits and something else breaking your heart. I know that I will never think of her without including music and her wonderful smile.
