“ My deepest sympathy for your loss. In the difficult days ahead I hope your will be able to find comfort in memories of the past and hope for the future. Our loving creator feels the pain of our losses as we do and has promised to undo the sorrow death causes. (Rev. 21:4,5; John 5:28,29) The Bible promises we will one day see our loved ones again, but at a time when there is no more pain, sickness, or death. Until that time, may you find joy in the many memories you have. My prayers are with you

“ My Aunt Edith brings me many happy Memories growing up. We had special days together with special lunches at her house. She introduced me to Jack LanLanne on TV and we would do exercises on the living room floor. We would watch 1 soap opera then off to other things. She bought me my first Parakeet. She taught me how to sew baby clothes and receiving blankets for my son before he was born. When ever I visited Michigan when I got older we always went to visit with Aunt Edith as much as we could and maybe hit a restaurant for extra fun, laughs, and no cooking. I will miss her dearly as Michigan trips will not be the same without her there. May God take her and keep her safe. Her loving niece, Suzanne Cool

“ I helped Edith with housework; she was sooo kind, she shared so many nice things re: her Chuck and Janet and all her dear grandkids and great ones too...She bragged about her wonderful "woodworking" husband and bragged as hard about her Daughter, Janet; she didn't worry because Janet was there and she'd brag about Chuck taking her for rides to get her out; and his woodworking skills. Jamie's son calling her "Granny"...she'd chuckle about that...She shared a lot with me and knowing Janet and Charlie.how sweet they are shows that Edith and her husband did a great job! There is never enough space when you want to honor some one like Edith; but my friend...RIP...you deserve it!

“ My Aunt Edith was such a loving proud woman who loved God. Her faith was 1st in her life. I loved visiting her and sitting at her kitchen table to talk. It did not take much to make her happy, she was just happy being home. Now that God has called her home I'm going to miss those talks. God bless you Aunt Edith you left a lot of life learning memories with me.
