“ Hello Lore, John and Ron,
It has been a long time. Please accept our sincere condolences on the loss of your father. We are still in the same house your Dad built for us back in 1976. It is a good house. We're sorry to hear your mother has passed away too. May the love of your family and friends get you through the days ahead. Wish I was there I would give each of you a hug it is such a sad time.
