“ Some of my favorite memories of dad include meeting him for the first time at the house. He was sitting in the dark kitchen and lit that cigarette, lighting up his face for the first time. I remember being so nervous meeting him for the first time. But he turned out to be a super friendly guy. My other favorite memory of him was when he, mom, myself and Sann Dee would go to dinner and dancing at that 50's place on Saturday nights. So much fun! I was proud to call you my father in law and most importantly, calling you dad even after all these years. I know he's watching the Red Wings up there! I love you dad and will always miss you.
