“ I only knew Elaine for 7 months but I tell you I wouldn't trade it for the world. Her faith was so strong and shared lovely memories of her family to me and stated God sure did bless her. I will cherish my time we shared and will remember it always. RIP Elaine!

“ Elaine and my mom, Joyce Harner, were friends from the Holly Church. My mom died 2 years ago, and that is the last time I talked to Elaine. She was a comfort to me after my mom's death. What a day that will be when we can see them again.

“ My husband and I when we were first dating would visit Elaine at her home, she told us a story about just starting out in life with her husband and using an orange crate/box as an end table for some time. We just bought our first home and I have had that memory come up quite a few times while being frustrated about what we can't yet change to the place. It definitely has helped change that mindset. She was such a sweet woman with a lot of heart. So sad she passed but she made a great impact on many people.
