“ Aunt Elena was beautiful. She was the kind of beautiful that made people turn their heads and look. With her dark eyes and smile that could light up the whole world. Elena was the aunt who rallied together all the kids and truded them around the entire neighborhood on Halloween night. She was the aunt who packed her little car full of kids after school to drive everyone home in a rainy afternoon. She was the aunt who walked blocks and blocks so we could calendars and Girl Scout cookies. Aunt Elena let us run around barefoot. She let me listen to Metallica when mom and dad said no. She taught me that there would always be another boy, but not another best friend. She had the kind of laugh that was so infectious it made everyone around her laugh. Everyone loved Aunt Elena. She made friends literally everywhere she went, whether standing in line at the grocery or sitting next to them in church. She had a huge heart and loved her family with every ounce of it. I send my heartfelt condolences to Uncle Roland, and Chrissy and Dawn and all of the kids. Your mom will be forever loved and forever missed. I love you all.
