The tribute captures Aunt Betty so well....she dedicated her life to growing things...growing plants of all kinds, growing a home, marriage & family with love and selflessness and growing a Faith we can all learn from. She will be dearly missed but certainly onto better things!

I am so happy that I was able to see her on the Saturday before she passed. Seeing the sparkle in her eyes and the beautiful smile she has. Seeing her reach out to her brother and hold hands with him, the love that was in that room, truly beautiful. God really has an angel with him.
