“ My deepest sympathy for your loss. It is a struggle to adjust when we miss someone so much. In the difficult days and weeks ahead I hope you will be able to find comfort in the promises preserved in God's Word. Our loving creator Jehovah feels the pain of our losses as we do and has promised to undo the sorrow death causes through his loving son Jesus Christ. (Rev. 21:4,5; John 5:28, 29) Jesus said we would one day see our loved ones again in a beautiful paradise earth where there is no sickness, pain or death. (Matt.6:9,10) Until that time may you find joy and comfort in the many memories you have. My prayers are with you. A. Freeman

“ When thinking of Eric, we will remember his strength. He was a rock for some yet also a place of comfort. He is loved fiercely by many and will live on in the hearts of all whose lives he touched. This is not an end but a beginning and we grieve not for Eric but for ourselves and our loved ones, for our great loss is surely Heavens gain. Till we see you again.....

“ I'll never forget Eric telling how he fished next to the grizzly bears in Anchorage. Now that takes some courage. Courage like he showed to all of us with his recent battle. Now peace will be with him as he hunts and fishes in the Lord's world - maybe with the same grizzlies! You will be remember always. Love, Aunt Jenny

“ I had the pleasure of working with Eric at East Middle School. Not only was he a really bright tech person, he was a warm and funny guy. Always willing to go the extra mile so everything worked out and as many folks as possible were happy with the outcome. I am truly sorry that he is gone, but know that he is no longer suffering and he's probably already made some new pals.

“ We did not get to know Eric as well as we would of liked; but we heard a lot about him and know that his family loves him dearly. Robert talked of him often and you could tell he loved and I am sure still does love him from the depths of his heart and soul. We are so sorry for your loss and feel your pain; it is comforting to know that Eric is freed from all harm and sickness and has a home in heaven. Love and God bless to all.
