“ My deepest sympathy for your loss. It is a struggle to adjust when we miss someone so much. In the difficult days ahead I hope you will be able to find comfort in the promises preserved in God's Word. Our loving creator Jehovah feels the pain of our losses as we do and has promised to undo the sorrow death causes through his loving son Jesus Christ. (Rev. 21:4,5; John 5:28,29) Jesus said we would one day see our loved ones again in a beautiful paradise earth where there is no sickness, pain or death. (Matt 6:9,10). Until that time, may you find joy in the many memories you have. My prayers are with you.

“ Dear Elliott family I am sorry for the lost of your dear loved one. Mr. Elliott had what the Bible calls special mightiness. (Psalms 90:10) No matter how long we live it is not long enough. God is a loving God, and that is why He is going to "wipeout every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, nor mourning, nor outcry be anymore the former things will have passed away" (Revelation 21:3,4) If you would like to know more go to jw.org.com official website.

“ Saying good bye to someone you love is very difficult. I was very lucky to have gotten to know your dad. He would share stories of him as a boy growing up. Taught me how to tie a fishing fly. Was my escort to many dinners. He also told me stories of my own relatives. I have such fine memories. He was love by many and will be missed by all who knew him. My thoughts are with you and your family.

“ *Jerry and family,
Sharon and I are so grateful that Gene had a special place in our lives. Your Dad's smile and sense of humor were a blessing. We will always cherish our conversations with him and all his marvelous stories.
Every time that Sharon and I take a road trip your parents come to mind and bring a smile. (Maybe They can be our patron saints of the road?)
We are confident that your Mom and Dad have been reunited and that their love lives on forever.
