“ Numbers, numbers, numbers I remember when I came home on leave,, Beano cornered me.. Before we got done he knew my SSN,,,, license plate number (North Carolina), address numbers, year ,month & day of birthdate,, how many days, months & years in USMC,,,,,, year of my pick up truck And a few others.... When we got done, he said " already used them combinations, they won't help "

My dad Larry & I laughed hard for a while over this,,,,, my dad said "he was serious about this" as they were headed to the horse track,,,,,, and we continued to laugh. Beano had a pen & paper writing all this down. ... Looking back,,,,,, YES ,, HE WAS THE KING !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

All the love man My dad Larry and Beano were the best of friends. ...

ANOTHER old school Worden.

God bless Beano, , you will be truly missed !!!!!!!!!!!!

“ Uncle Beano you was the best. Awsome memories. When I worked on linden rd, you would drive me back and forth for almost a year. Your driving would scare the crap out of me. But I didn't care cause we would have so much fun. I love you and you are gonna be so missed very much. Dad and you are having the time of our life's. RIP!!!!

“ Wether it was calling us kids, disguised as Santa Claus, or dishing out his secret formula on how to win at Keno, Uncle Gene was truly one of a kind, it didn't matter if you talked to him for five minutes or five hours, he'd leave a lasting impression on you. Rest in peace King of Holly.
