

Evelyn Sue Applegate

April 7, 1943 - August 9, 2023

Evelyn Sue Applegate, April 7, 1943. 80 years old

Sue grew up in Waterford, Michigan and was close to her large extended family. Sue was the loving wife of Ronald Applegate. They met at Ted's Diner on Woodward Avenue and were married on June 27, 1964. They raised their family; Cathy (Chris) Doll, Cindy Donner, and Jason (Kerry) Applegate in Holly. Sue enjoyed making baskets, volunteering, sewing and working at the shops in downtown Holly. She was an amazing grandma to Connor Doll, Megan Donner, Amie Donner, Caleb Doll, Laney Applegate and Morgan Applegate. She took the grandchildren on camping trips, loved playing games with them and giving the best grandma advice and hugs. She was as sweet as the spice drops she always had for the grandkids.

Sue will be remembered for her kindness and her beautiful smile. She and Ron enjoyed many winters in Arizona, where every evening they played cards for a penny a point. Mom was the winner at cards but we were the winners to have her in our lives. She showed us so much love and taught us how to be gracious and compassionate. And at the end she showed us what true strength and determination were all about. She is preceded in death by her parents Joseph and Evelyn Urbonovic, survived by her husband, children grandchildren and sister Beverly (Ralph) Lane.

A visitation will be held on Sun. Aug. 13, 2023 from 2-7PM. The funeral service will be held on Mon. Aug. 14, 2023 at 11AM with burial in Oak Hill Cemetery. Memorial donations can be made to: CUREPSP at <https://www.psp.org/>

“ *I went to high school with Sue & enjoyed her special friendship. We then joined Beta Sigma Phi & continued our friendship. As often happens, when families come we sometimes lose contact with friends, which happened with Sue & I, but truly was blessed to know her. My heart & prayers go out to Ron & all of her family..
