“ Grandma was such a special part of my life and our family. So many of our family traditions and favorite dishes--especially the cookies, pasties and amazing turkey dinners--are what I remember when I think of grandma. We grew up only 5 miles away and I feel so blessed that we could spend so much time with her--it was always a treat. Thanksgiving, birthdays, even Halloween--when we were little we had to trick-or-treat at grandmas and show her our costumes! There are so many wonderful memories and special times, more than can be captured here. What is so powerful to me is how close we were from the time I was a baby through my adult life. She sent me cards and care packages while I was away at school, filled with her love. She regularly visited us even though our family lived in Maryland, and even came to visit us in Europe, when she was was 76! She was there for me when I was a new mom and helped us get settled with both our children in their first months of life. She had so much to share about life and I never tired of her stories and wisdom and I valued all of the times and rich conversations we shared--both serious and silly! I am thankful for the many years that God blessed us with her and the love that she shared. We love you Grandma. You'll be missed but we know you are at home with the Lord and at peace. You will always make me smile.

“ What can I say about Grandma Flo. I loved her.

I will always remember going to her house in Royal Oak for pasties. I learned early on, not to ask for gravy. Grandpa Pete made sure of that. I always laughed when she would pay so close attention to my driving skills, this from a woman that never had a driver license. Then there was the time I had to drive her home in my full size Ford Bronco. It was too high for her to get into, so I had to put my hand on her back side and push. I got her in the truck, with no complaint. She had her keys in hand, as soon as I started the truck.

To Chuck & Bonnie my deepest sympathy, thank you for taking care of her these last years. I like to remember the good times. I'm sure you will too. She is finally home, Love you Grandma.
