“ I worked with Ona at the Daylight Store many years ago when Lana, Mike Donigan, and I were all teens. Mr. Greve always walked to the store to walk his wife home. He was always such a gentleman and respectful to her. My condolences to the family.

“ My mother Donna is his sister. She had a great childhood spent with Montie and her other 3 brothers. We love to look at the old photo albums. My father lived in South Branch and went to school with some of the Greve children.

. In 1982 my husband and I with our son Andre came to live in the USA, after many years in Brazil. Uncle Montie and Aunt Ona took us in for over a month until we got to Flint and the residency training there. Thank you so much for the hospitality.

In a more recent visit, he drove down to Florida to bring back his sister Donna. He drove a lot and enjoyed it. He took us on guided tours like grampa Ed Greve liked to do showing places where the family grew up, where they went to school and the old stone house still seen in South Branch. Sometimes I would imagine my uncles and mother playing in the front yard or coming home from the boarding academy to spend a few days at home with their parents.

Unfortunately, Donna is hospitalized, and my father Leslie Scofield, brother Leslie III and my family will not be able be there but our prayers are with Lana, her family, Chuck, Brenda, and Uncle Bob, and Uncle Dave and their families.

God bless each one. From Sharon Marques, niece , and Donna his sister.

With all our love and hope for God's comfort.

“ Mom and I lived right next to the Greves when I was a little girl. They always invited us over to watch tv on Sunday nights. Mutual of Omaha's Wild Kindom and the Disney movie all on color tv. Montie taught me how to fix my own bike and helped me with my flat tires. He once took me on a bike ride with him. We rode right on the street, just like the cars. He taught me the rules of the road for bikes...lol. I suspect they were often responsible for me being able to pay for pathfinder campouts. It is amazing to me that the Holly Ravens are still running. To this day I absolutely love camping. I have fond memories of playing capture the flag during one campout and it was Monte that played with us and helped us walk silently in the woods. Between the Wohlers, Krantzs, and the Greves I was one lucky little girl. I moved away from Holly when I was 10, but I will always remember the neighbor I could always count on. “ There will never be replacement for Floyd. He was a one of a kind. The real deal. Spent many hours at GM together, enjoying his endless treats he shared. He would help in so many ways. Floyd overcame difficulties in life with his special way about himself. I know you are in heaven, you deserve it. Brian

“ HE treated me as a daughter. He was delighted that I was married to his son Chuck. Decorated grandma's house for the wedding. Could make a great fruit basket out of a watermelon.
