“ I loved all the Tiger baseball games that you and I went to, all the trips to cedar point and when you won me that huge plush Pluto on one of the games I knew you was the most talented dads ever. I was so proud of my Pluto that day and still am even if you are both gone. All the rides in the back of the truck to the DQ after the ball team you coached won will never be forgotten. I love you dad and can't wait for the day I see you again.
