“ Tootie started as an employee of my parents at the Ben Franklin store, but she became a family friend. I still have the Christmas decoration she made for my husband and me for our wedding over 40 years ago. My condolences to Tootie's family.

“ My grandma “Tootie” was the textbook definition of an amazing grandmother. She meant the absolutely world to me and I’ll miss her everyday

One of my favorite memories of my grandmother was when I was in 2nd grade at holly elementary. We were asked to bring in something that meant a lot to us and share with the class why it was special. Most kids brought their favorite football, toys, skateboards and other things kids care about. I brought my grandma Tootie. All the kids in my class thought she was awesome. It’s a memory I’ll treasure for the rest of my days.

I love ya lots grandma and I take comfort in knowing that you’re finally reunited with grandpa in heaven.

“ Tootie had the most beautiful eyes and was the friendliest person I know. In 9th grade I went with my best friend, Cindy Guffin, to help watch Tootie's first baby while Tootie ran to the store. We thought she was incredibly cool. As a teen, she had that unique bedroom in the basement of their house on Corbin street. The drawers and cupboards were completely built in. I remember her working at Ben Franklin-always friendly and interested in your life. Rest in Peace Tootie.

“ 75 years of friendship with this lady. From pre school to last years visit we still had a laugh and and giggle, just like the old days. Till I learned to spell Tootie instead "Tudi", there were just so many memories of our life to share. I will miss you dear friend, and know your life with Bill will be finally complete.. Love ya Toots.
