“ Guy was my best friend and constant neighborhood companion during our elementary school years. He lived on the corner of Ormond Road and Big Lake Road, I less than a mile away. We played together, got in trouble together (while attempting to "T-P" the house of the history teacher!), and enjoyed classes and recess together at Davisburg Elementary School. I have wonderful memories of his friendship, for which I will be eternally grateful, and my heart and condolences go out to his wife Rhonda, to the entire Lloyd family and extended family, and to the Potter family, dear friends from the Davisburg Baptist Church.

May God be near to all, and may His promise of eternal life and the coming of our Savior be our "blessed hope" as we anticipate seeing Guy in glory! My prayers are with you during this difficult time of your loss.
